Opened in April 1971 and going 50 years strong Griffith Pioneer Park Museum showcases the region's unique history.

"This is one thing you must do in Griffith"
Alfio, Sydney

"Not your average Museum"
Helen, Blue Mountains

Griffith Pioneer Park Museum is set amongst 11 hectares of natural bush land on Scenic Hill and is known in local area for its natural surroundings.

Hosting more than 40 buildings ready to be explored, here you'll find the history of Griffith and the Murrumbidgee Irrigation Area as you walk around - and into - the extensive collection from the region.

Take a stroll through the recreated original Griffith settlement, Bagtown, or view the fascinating collection at the Griffith Italian Museum showcasing the contribution of Italian migrants to the area.

The Wine and Irrigation Building tells the story of the Riverina's 'food bowl' with many examples of the ingenuity that contributed to making the region productive.

Check out the antique vehicles and vintage machinery, or bring a picnic and relax in our beautiful gardens and children's playground.

See you at the Museum!
