Government, Corporate and Community clients in bridging the cultural gap

About Us

Ngaran Ngaran is an Aboriginal owned and operated cultural service provider.

Established in 2011 and operating on Yuin Country on the South Coast of NSW, Ngaran Ngaran Culture Awareness (NNCA) helps the wider community understand Koori culture. Founder and Director Dwayne 'Naja' Bannon-Harrison is a Yuin-Ngarrigu Descendant with connections to the Yorta-Yorta, Dja Dja Warrup, Watchabolic and Gunai language groups.

Ngaran Ngaran is a community engagement consultancy with a core focus of assisting organisations to realise their potential in developing sustainable, respectful transformational business outcomes and work towards a true partnership with local communities. NNCA has over 45 years combined knowledge in developing community programs across Australia. Dwayne has been at the forefront of community engagement projects with award-winning results across a variety of sectors including health and tourism.

Our Vision

Ngaran Ngaran Culture Awareness is a highly respected entity creating positive change for our people, and welcoming others in to learn and become a part of our story.

Our mission

'We want our community to meet the world, and the world to meet our community.'
